

JONATHAN B. HILL

Member, Washington, D.C.

Aviation – Aviation Litigation

Business Transactions & Corporate – Mergers & Acquisitions

Government Relations & Legislation

Litigation

jhill@dowlohnesc.com

BIOGRAPHY:

Jonathan Hill is a Member of Dow Lohnes. His primary responsibility is in the field of transportation and more specifically aviation law. Mr. Hill also has a litigation and corporate practice.

Mr. Hill has served on the board of a foreign aircraft manufacturer and a defense contractor, as a member of The Federal City Council, The Greater Washington Research Center, and the Board of the McLean School. He served on the Board and as President of the Board of Trustees of the Art and Technology Academy, District of Columbia, Public Charter School from 2002 – 2011. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Aviation Accreditation Board International.

Mr. Hill has been an active pilot since 1964. He presently holds a commercial pilots rating, multi-engine land, and private pilots rating, single engine land and sea. He is instrument rated and flies regularly.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND MEMBERSHIPS:

Bar Admissions – Massachusetts, 1969; District of Columbia, 1972

Court Admissions – United States Supreme Court, 1977

Trustee – Aviation Accreditation Board International

EDUCATION:

B.A., Colby College, 1966

J.D., Boston University, 1969