

JOYCE TRIMBLE GWADZ

Member, Washington, D.C.

Taxation – Transactions; Controversies

jgwadz@dowlohnes.com

BIOGRAPHY:

Joyce Gwadz joined Dow Lohnes in 1976 and became a Member in 1985. Her practice focuses on the tax issues arising in connection with the acquisition and sale of business properties, transactional tax planning, and corporate reorganizations, with particular emphasis on the taxation of corporations and partnerships. Her practice also encompasses tax controversy matters, including audits and administrative appeals before the Internal Revenue Service, as well as litigation.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND MEMBERSHIPS:

Bar Admissions – Connecticut, 1976; District of Columbia, 1977

Court Admissions – United States Tax Court, 1980

Member – American Bar Association Section of Taxation, Corporate Tax Committee

Member – District of Columbia Bar Section of Taxation

Member – Board of Trustees of the Legal Aid Society of the District of Columbia

Member – Connecticut Bar Association

EDUCATION:

A.B., Smith College, 1970

J.D., magna cum laude, The University of Michigan Law School, 1976