BIOGRAPHY:

Christopher Murray is an attorney in our government relations practice group. Christopher routinely addresses the political and regulatory issues confronting the education sector. In particular, Christopher focuses on government relations matters related to online learning, the enactment and promulgation of laws and regulations regarding Title IV program administration and corresponding program compliance, federal workforce and military education programs, accreditation, foreign sanctions, medical schools, and technology applications in education.

Christopher received his J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School where he was an editor of the Vanderbilt Law Review and his B.A. in Government and Theology from Georgetown University. Christopher is Dow Lohnes's pro bono coordinator and sits on the Board of Directors of Groundswell, one of the nation's leading clean energy and workforce development nonprofits.
